Dear Land'or members,

As everyone knows, the world has gone through quite a bit of economic upheaval in the last few years and we all feel the crunch in different ways. The Bahamas, like most Caribbean islands, must import most items (televisions, beef, maintenance and cleaning products, etc.) that enhance our guests' vacation experience. It is sad to note that popular Nassau superstore and supplier Robin Hood has closed its doors due to economic factors. President Sandy Schaefer told the February 2nd Nassau Guardian that $8 million was put into the property but "expenses were running higher than what was being brought in...when you have invested as much as we did, then you get hit by a worldwide economic crisis. We are all impacted and none of us are immune to it." Sadly, Robin Hood's story is not unusual in these times. Due to articles in the local newspapers and Bloomberg.com, many of our owners have contacted Land'or's corporate headquarters to inquire about the financial plight of the Atlantis. The mega resort acknowledged to the Nassau Tribune on February 15th that facility upgrades were being held up. Also, due to increased costs imposed by Bahamas Electricity Corporation (BEC), Nassau-based grocery chain City Market had its power cut on February 21st for inability to pay.

"Definitely the global economy has an effect on what goes on here in The Bahamas."

- Zhivargo Laing, Minister of Finance

It's not all doom and gloom though. In The Bahamas Investor of January 27th, Prime Minister Hubert Ingraham stated that The Bahamas has added around 380,000 new airline seats from major tourism markets, giving the country more non-stop connections to more destinations. He also noted the 3% economic growth expected in 2012. Given that costs have risen dramatically everywhere for such staples as gasoline, milk and building supplies (and bearing in mind that we must import and pay duties on so many necessities), we are determined to continue to provide the type of vacation memories shared by longtime Club Land'or members Bob and Carol McKee (see page 2). Our renovations continue, as we strive to improve and enhance our guests' experience with us. Remember, we are your island home-away-from-home and will ALWAYS do our best to make your vacations memorable!

Our Members Speak

"We've been Club Land'or members since 1984 but each time we come home with wonderful memories and new friends. The smallness of the club allows for close interaction with other guests and gives us a cozy feeling. We had our daughters family join us the second week and oh, what fun seeing the kids dance, swim, snorkel and chase after lizards like our kids did years ago. "

- Bob and Carol of Nebraska

"We used the Flex Plus Exchange system for our trip to Florida and couldn't have been happier....everything went smoothly and we had a great time."

- Teresa of North Carolina

"Always, always, always have lobster thermidore in the Blue Lagoon and it never disappoints. Looking forward to next year already!"

- John of New Jersey

"Thank you for telling us about flex plus. Trading is easy, and the ladies were very helpful. Nice to have choices these days."

- Tim and Meg of South Carolina
